

Benjamin Britten Festival – Sunday 18th August St Peter’s Eastern Hill

This year is the centenary of the birth of the English composer Benjamin Britten. The Parish of St Peter’s Eastern Hill and the Institute for Spiritual Studies present a day of performances of Britten's sacred music.

11am High Mass - including Britten’s setting of the ‘Missa Brevis’

1.15pm Speakers & Choral Performance – with introductory talks on Britten's music, by Michael Leighton-Jones and Andrew Raiskums. followed by a performance by the choirs of St Peter's Eastern Hill and Gloriana directed by Andrew Raiskums: Two Church Canticles: 1. My Beloved is Mine (Francis Quarles) and 2. Abraham and Isaac (Chester Mystery Play); followed by A Ceremony of Carols.

Cost (afternoon): $20 Bookings: St Peter’s Parish Office, ph. (03) 9662 2391